DIALOGUE

THEATRE FOR INCLUSION

Theatre for Inclusion is a creative workshop approach that uses performance, movement, voice, and collective expression to build confidence, empathy, and intercultural dialogue. It creates a safe space where participants can share experiences, explore identity, and strengthen social connection.

WHAT DID THIS APPROACH MAKE POSSIBLE?

- stronger self-expression
- increased confidence
- shared intercultural learning
- active participation
- stronger community connection
- visibility of young migrant voices

By combining educational tools and creative methodologies such as theatre, New Horizons promotes inclusion not only as a concept, but as a shared lived experience.
